OBITUARY

Mrs. Linda Henderson Oglesby, 59, of Fountain Inn, South Carolina, passed away on Thursday, February 9, 2017, at St. Francis Hospital Eastside. Born in Greenville, South Carolina, she was a daughter of Earnestine Barton Williams and the late Willie Lee Henderson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Cedric Bernard Oglesby; grandmothers, Lillie Bell Rogers and Edna Barton and grandfathers, Luther Rogers and Earnest Barton.

Left to cherish many fond memories are her mother, Earnestine Barton (Rufus) Williams of Greenville; daughters, Kristie (Jerald) Foster of Simpsonville, Tracy (Kevin) Shelton of Mauldin and Tina Henderson of Greenville; sisters, Carolyn Henderson of Simpsonville, Brenda (Tyrone) Thompson of Taylors, Jervine (Ted Walker) Henderson of Greenville; brothers, Tommy Lee (Janice) Henderson of Taylors and James (Cindy) Henderson of Spartanburg; seven grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In all times and through all things, friendship is a steadfast reminder that love endures. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement. May God bless all of you.

The Family of Linda Oglesby

FREEDOM

I am free, no longer bound.
No more chains holding me.
Free from the consistent pain and poking;
free from pills and piles of medical bills.
I am free.

Free from barely being able to breathe without some reminder that my body is breaking.
Free. No longer bound. Free to be.

This is not to say you won't be missed; family.
I will miss the smiles and inside jokes;
continue to laugh. I am free.
Bound by the chains brought in by Adam over 2000 years ago. Bound by the effect of not eating right, not being right. But right now;
I am free.
No more chains holding me.
My soul is resting.

If the love of my children could keep me here,
I'd still be.
But peace be still.
Be still and know that He is God.
And I am good because
I am with Him.
So settle in peace.
I am free, no longer bound,
no more chains holding me.

As you pay respect, shed tears, know that God is here and in Him you too can be free.
I declare and decree whom the son sets free is truly free indeed.
Let us pause just for a moment and receive.
