The Light

You brought a light to this world and made an impact on everyone you met- no one could ever forget you.

You were the life of the party – always making others laugh, life was more fun when you were around. You shined bright every time you left the house – you matched from your head to your shoes and you took pride in looking nice.

You enjoyed the fast life - everyone knew you loved your motorcycles.

You were the glue – you came through for others when they needed you most
Your smile could brighten up a room – just you being you
Your words were powerful – you knew just what to say
In times of sorrow, we will rejoice for the laughter and love you gave.

We will remember your life by reminiscing on all the fun memories we created with you

You are loved, You are missed
Your light will forever shine bright in our hearts
On this day, we will not mourn our loss;
instead we will celebrate your light.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

THE OBITUARY

On March 10, 2017, the Lord called His son, Mr. Leroy "Bud" Rosemond, age 74, home to join the loved ones who have gone before him: his mother, Elizabeth Madden; father, James Thompson; brother, William Ray Rosemond and sister, Deliane Thompson.

Leroy had been retired from the Greenville County as a truck driver for the past twelve years. He was always the life of the party, he believed in having fun and being with family and friends. He was a dynamic dresser from head to toe, everything had to match for any occasion-hat, suit, and shoes. He took pride in his jewelry, motorcycles and antique cars, especially his convertible Cadillac. He was of the Baptist faith.

"Bud" is survived by his wife, Catheryn Barton Rosemond of Greenville; two sons, Richard Rosemond and Michael Barton, both of Greenville; two sisters, Brenda Thompson of Greenville and Virginia Hallums of Mauldin; three brothers, Evon Thompson, Dennis Thompson and Herman (Sheila) Thompson, all of Greenville; one grandchild, Myisha Barton of Greenville and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
