

To My Loving Husband

I can't believe I've been so blessed
With a husband such as you;
To stand by me and hold my hand
To help me make it through.

It hasn't always been good times.
We've had our share of tears.
We've faced obstacles together
And overcome our fears.

In good times we have laughed so much
And shared such awesome days.
No one knows me like you do.
We grow closer everyday.

I know that you were made for me.
Our life I so adore.
I hope you know deep in my heart
I could not love you more.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

Obituary

Mr. DeWitt Jackson, son of the late Claude L. and Susie Hill Jackson, departed this life on Friday, November 10, 2017, at his home. He was born June 21, 1920, in Greenville County. He joined Reedy Fork Baptist Church at an early age and attended Greenville County Schools and graduated from Bettis Academy in Edgefield County, South Carolina. He was a World War II veteran of the 92nd Buffalo Division, where he was wounded in action and earned several medals, including the Purple Heart.

Preceding him in death were brothers, William, Harold and Floyd Jackson; sisters, Hattie Bee Jackson Howell, Willie Mae Jackson Buckner, Claudia Jackson Dennis and Juanita Jackson Edwards.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are his loving and devoted wife of 48 years, Barbara Jeanne Jackson; two sisters, Alice Gregg and Penny McDonald, both of Greenville, SC; children, Shirley (Roger) Thompson, Paralee (Pat) Jackson, Dwight (Dwana) Jackson, Ransom Jackson, Roger Dean (Pamela) Jackson, Debra (Ewing) Thompson, DeWitt (Josephine) Jackson, Renee Lester, Denise (Willie) Dowdy, Beverly (Daryl) Davis, Nicole (Michael) Bateman, and Tony Jackson, all of Indianapolis, Indiana; stepchildren, Bruce (Donna) Warren of Santa Ana, California, Patricia (Richard) Chatman, Steven Warren, Elaine (Randy) Gregg, Gregory (Tammy) Warren, Denise Ford, and Jackie Ford, all of Greenville, South Carolina; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.
