My Mom

A woman of God sincere, loving, kind and strong.
I can never repay all of the love you've shown.
Not just to me, but to all mankind far and near.
Your love of God and his scriptures were crystal clear.
You made life worth living through all of your ups and downs.
Just being around you, Mom, there was no definition to the word "frown".
The man that I am today, I owe a great deal of that to you.
Your teaching of God's Word, I hold them all to be true.
So today is filled with a lot of emotions and so our eyes do swell.
But as for you, my dear Mom,
I know with your soul, "It Is Well".

Written for Quinton by his godmother.
